

REGENERATIVE AGRICULTURE TRAINING PROGRAM Spring 2023

You are invited to participate in this fantastic 7-week Regenerative Agriculture training program for farmers. Over 100 farmers have completed this program, delivered by leaders in regenerative agriculture giving you unique insights and tailored advice for implementing these practices on your farm!

2023 PROGRAM

- Week 1 | Thu 7th Sep - Introduction to Regen Ag – myths and misconceptions
- Week 2 | Tues 12th Sep – Soils: Living roots, organic matter, soil biology and nutrient cycling
- Week 3 | Thu 21st Sep – Livestock & grazing systems
- Week 4 | Thu 28th Sep - Soils: Minimising disturbance, maximise coverage, soil monitoring
- Week 5 | Thu 5th Oct - Integration of trees
- Week 6 | Thu 12th Oct - Financial indicators and transitioning to Regen Ag
- Week 7 | Thu 19th Oct - Developing your regenerative farm plan

YOUR INVESTMENT

Attend 7 workshops/farm walks
Your Contribution | $250 +GST

Most sessions will run from 10am-2pm and include a farm walk on a local farm.

There may be an occasional Zoom session
Farms must be located within the watershed of Westernport or Port Phillip Bays.

Only 20 places available
Registrations close Fri 25th Aug

Register by clicking here

Questions - Contact Peter Ronalds peter@wpcln.org.au or Tom Kennett thomas@regeneratingfarms.com.au

This project is supported by Melbourne Water through funding from the Australian Government's National Landcare Program in partnership with Western Port Catchment Landcare Network and Mornington Peninsula Shire

