

'2017 Bunny Boiler Challenge'

Phillip Island Landcare Group Fundraising Dinner and Rabbit Control Information Night.

Rabbits are our national disgrace – they also taste great!
A chance for professional chefs and home cooks to present their favourite rabbit recipes and be judged the winners for 2017.

When: Friday 2nd June 2017, 6.00pm until late

Where: Cape Kitchen, 1215 Phillip Island Road, Newhaven

Cost: $30 per head or $70 per family (pay at door). Drinks available at bar prices. No BYO.

Entry Includes.

Dinner: Rabbit dishes provided by professional chefs and home cooks.
Supplementary dishes provided by Cape Kitchen;
Presentation of rabbit dish prizes;
Drawing of fundraising raffle;
Presentation on Rabbits;
'Pin the tail on the rabbit' game;
Live local music and Rabbit poems.

Professional chefs and home cooks need to register by Friday 19th May.

Conditions of Entry: One entry per person. Entry is $10.00 with 2 rabbits for each entry. Professional Chef and Home Cook competition categories.
Further information will be available on registration.

RSVP: Essential by Tuesday 30th May. Please visit:

<http://www.basscoastlandcare.org.au/newsandevents/2017-bunny-boiler-challenge>

For further information please contact David Rooks on 0418 115 935 or david@eventsupport.com.au

