

Future Homes and Farms for 2040

Empowering people to adapt

Biodiversity on farm in a changing climate.

Planning and managing remnant vegetation and revegetation in a changing climate- Webinar.

Are you interested in learning more about planning for and managing plant biodiversity on farm in a changing climate? Join us for this exciting webinar where you will find out more about:

- Planning for revegetation on farms in a changing climate.
- Remnant vegetation protection and management on farms in a changing climate.
- Native vegetation and fire on farms- planning for fire in a changing climate.
- Creating a functioning ecosystem on farm – evidence of success.

Guest speakers include Simone Louwhoff from Federation University Australia supported by staff from Bass Coast Landcare Network.

Event Details

Date and time: Thursday 14th October 2.30 pm 4.30 pm.

RSVP and further information: Email joel.geoghegan@basscoastlandcare.org.au
RSVP by Tuesday 12th October.

A zoom link will be forwarded through to all those who have registered prior to the webinar event.

Bass Coast Landcare
2-4 Bass School Rd
Bass VIC 3991
www.basscoastlandcare.org.au

The Future Farms, Homes and Festivals project is supported by the Department of Environment, Land, Water and Planning through the Supporting our Regions to Adapt program.