

Bass Coast Landcare Network Discussion Group Farm Walk.

'Introduction to Regenerative Agriculture Farm Planning'.

Join us at the Kardella South property of respected regenerative agriculture consultant, Declan McDonald, who will showcase his property and its regenerative agriculture journey. Declan will discuss the transition from leased pea farming to regeneratively managed pastures all through the lens of agroecosystem design.

For those of you who are interested in regenerative agriculture, are after advice on farm planning or need a quick refresher, this will be an event not to be missed. We look forward to seeing you on this exciting day.
