*Do you like walking along the beach?
Ever wanted to get involved in protecting your local threatened species?*

Come along to our workshop to learn about Hooded Plovers and what you can do to protect them!

Hooded Plovers lay their eggs and raise chicks on the beach, and you can get involved in protecting them. We will spend the morning indoors, have lunch and go for a beach walk. All are welcome!

Date: Sunday 11th February Time: 10:00am – 12:30pm

We will drive to Kilcunda Trestle Bridge Beach after lunch for a beach walk

Location: Kilcunda Community Centre, 3513 Bass Hwy, Kilcunda

RSVP: by 6th February to bnb.events@birdlife.org.au

Lunch provided. Please inform of any special dietary requirements at RSVP.

Please wear appropriate clothing for the weather.
