Creating Climate Smart Communities.

Plant ID and Bushland Management and at The Gurdies Nature Conservation Reserve.

Join us at The Gurdies Nature Conservation Reserve for a walk and talk session with Ross Henry, ranger from the Bunurong Land Council Aboriginal Corporation.

Ross will talk about:

- Plant ID & plant communities
- Sensitive management techniques to promote healthy populations of native plants
- Sensitive and alternative weed management/suppression techniques
- Plant uses
- Orchids, herbs and creepers, life cycles, management and threats

This should be a fantastic event and I encourage everyone who is interested to register.
